RESOURCE GUIDE FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES WHO EXPERIENCE VIOLENCE

Produced and Distributed by:

ACCESSING SAFETY PROJECT
PROMISING PRACTICES IN SERVING
CRIME VICTIMS WITH DISABILITIES

in association with:

This project was supported by a sub-grant of Grant No. 2002-VF-GX-K005 awarded to SafePlace in Austin, Texas by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Points of view in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice or SafePlace.

Last update: September 2005

This guide is intended for use by people with disabilities in southern Arizona who have experienced sexual violence. It will also be useful for service providers who work with people with disabilities who experience sexual violence.

The guide was developed by the Southern Arizona Center Against Sexual Assault's Accessing Safety project in response to needs identified by members of the Southern Arizona Sexual Violence Disability Coalition and local people with disabilities. The community requested a guide that is more accessible than the well-known and widely-distributed Information and Referral Directory of Human Resources.

The goals for this guide were to create a document that: offers "at-a-glance" ready reference to specifically targeted services, is available in multiple formats, and can be easily updated as local agencies experience staff turnover and changes in programs. The guide is available in this printed format, on the Center Against Sexual Assault website (www.sacasa.org), in large print and in Braille. Other reasonable accommodations will be made upon request.

This is a local guide. Unless otherwise noted, it should be assumed that all service providers are located in the greater Tucson metropolitan area and have mailing addresses within the city limits. It should also be assumed that all phone numbers listed, unless otherwise noted, are in the 520 area code.

Please direct any questions or requests for entry updates to the Accessing Safety project at the Center Against Sexual Assault at 327-1171 or disability@sacasa.org.

The Center Against Sexual Assault wishes to thank the service providers listed in this guide who took the time to complete a form or answer questions about their organizations over the phone. Their contributions have helped ensure a coordinated community response to sexual violence against people with disabilities.

If you or someone you know is being abused, neglected or exploited please call the appropriate number below.

TTY Services

If an agency is not TTY accessible call Arizona Relay Service at 7-1-1 or 1-800-367-8939 via TTY or on the internet at <http://www.azrelay.org> .

Arizona Relay Service provides statewide telecommunications relay service linking TTY users to those who do not have TTY.

Filing a formal complaint

An individual may file a formal complaint about an act of discrimination by a locally or state-funded service provider to the federal agency in charge (28 C.F.R. Sec. 35.170 [2001]).

To start the process, an individual should call the ADA Information Line at 1-800-514-0301 or 1-800-514-0383 (TTY). If you are unsure if the complaint is appropriate, it does not hurt to call and ask.
